Proposed Indoctrination of [redacted] Instructors' Wives

25X1A

Ref: Memorandum to Director of Training from Acting Chief Training dated 14 September 1954.

1. Colonel Edwards would have no objection to an indoctrination program for [redacted] instructors' wives providing:

25X1A

A. The overt functions of the Agency are emphasized, a little deeper and more in detail than covered in Public Law.

B. The organizational structure of the Agency is not discussed. Colonel Edwards feels there is no need for the wives to be knowledgeable of this information.

C. Clandestine training material be restricted to general statements, but not to include any sensitive matters.

25X1A

D. An outline of the indoctrination program be submitted in advance to [redacted] at which time Mr. [redacted], if he is designated to make the presentation, and the undersigned confer with [redacted]

25X1A

25X1A

2. It is my recommendation that secrecy agreements be obtained from the wives. This, also, can be submitted to Mr. [redacted]
